

Historical Background

Rueben Dockery is a statesman of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee. As a resident for thirty-six years, he has remained firm, fair, and consistent as a civic figure. As an Independent Candidate for the Tennessee 21st Senatorial District in 2022, he personally experienced how government bureaucracy could deprive voters of their rights of Democracy. His promise to constituents of inspired the founding of the Tennessee Coalition of Independent Voters (TCOIV) as a political action committee in December of 2023. Key aims for TCOIV can be gleaned below:

Empower Democracy

In a time when partisanship and polarization seem to dominate our political landscape, the need for a more balanced and inclusive approach to democracy has never been greater. Independent Tennessee Coalition of Independent Voters (TCOIV) is on a mission to empower voters and promote a fair and non-partisan political system. We invite you to be a part of this critical movement and support our coalition seeking to strengthen democracy for all.

Promoting Inclusivity

TCOIV is committed to creating an inclusive and diverse political environment that represents all voices. By financially supporting our coalition, you are contributing to a more representative democracy, where every voter's voice is heard, regardless of their party affiliation or non-affiliation.

Bridging the Divide

Political polarization has left our nation divided. TCOIV works tirelessly to bridge this gap, bringing people together to find common ground and constructive solutions. Your financial support will help us continue fostering a more cooperative and civil political discourse.

Electoral Reforms

TCOIV advocates for electoral reforms that promote fairness and transparency in the electoral process. With your support, we can work towards implementing reforms such as protecting the purity of the ballot and moving back to the paper ballot system, making sure that elections are fair and accountable to the people.

Supporting Independent Candidates

We believe that independent candidates should have a fair shot at running for office. Grassroot financial support will help TCOIV support independent candidates who prioritize the needs of their constituents over party loyalty, ensuring that voters have real choices on the ballot.

Grassroots Impact

TCOIV operates as a grassroots organization, and all donations will directly fund our efforts to reach more voters, conduct voter education, and engage communities in our mission. Public support can help us build a stronger network of independent-minded voters in Tennessee and across the nation.

Transparency and Accountability

We are committed to ensuring that contributions are used efficiently and effectively. TCOIV maintains a high standard of transparency and accountability, and we will provide regular updates on how donations are making a difference in strengthening our democracy.

Conclusion

By supporting the Tennessee Coalition of Independent Voters PAC, you are taking a vital step toward fostering a more inclusive, cooperative, and fair political system. Join our mission to empower voters and make democracy work for everyone. Be a part of the active pursuit of a stronger, more unified democracy, and together, we can make a lasting impact. Donate today and be a part of the change our nation needs!
